

Developing the Keys to Effective Leadership & Spiritual Transformation

On Wednesday 14th and Thursday 15th March 2018, 7.00pm – 9.15pm at the Handsworth New Testament Church of God, 240-244 Lozells Road, Birmingham B19 1NP.

Cost: £5 per delegate (which covers both evenings)

Midlands Regional Seminar Co-ordinator: Bishop Albert Watson (Bilston) Host: Bishop Deverton Douglas (Handsworth)

The seminar will help ministers, current and emerging leaders increase their awareness of how to:

- ♦ understand their personal needs and the causes of their greatest struggles
- ♦ know and identify people's personality styles with the key elements behind their behaviours
- ♦ know their own positive styles of leadership, along with their weaknesses and negative styles of leadership
- ♦ identify and possess the keys to effective communication, intense conflict & problem-solving skills, and how to be honest and accountable
- ♦ be spiritually mature with a broken heart of humility and self confidence
- ♦ Learn the secrets for connecting with people in ways to mentor, coach, and/or counsel with effective skills
- ♦ develop the skills and knowledge to help people, to build up congregations.
- ♦ to build great churches, train key leaders and expand the core group of local church leader.

Facilitator: Dr Larry G. Hess

Special Assistant to the Chancellor of Education and

President of the Pentecostal Theological Seminary

For further information please contact Julian Moore, Bilston District Secretary, Mob: 07961 767 046

Email: juliandmoore@hotmail.co.uk